

I spy with my Heide eye... Can you find this artwork at Heide?

Mike Brown

Lullaby in the Twilight Zone, 1965

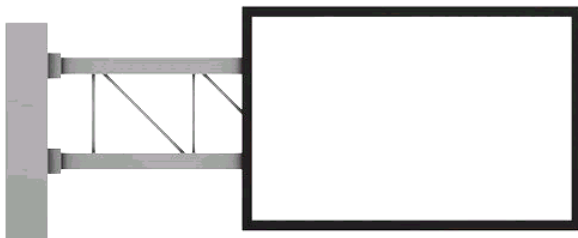

synthetic polymer paint on composition board

122 x 92 cm

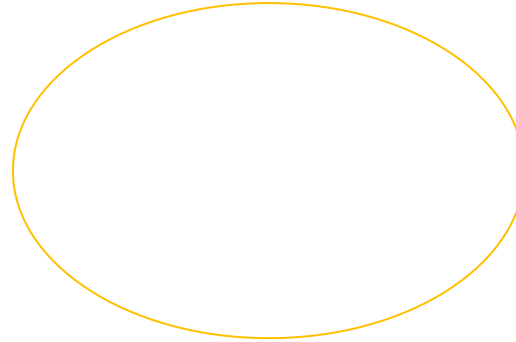

Heide Museum of Modern Art

Purchased from John and Sunday Reed 1980

If this place were a town, what would it be called?

The yellow birds are singing.
How do we know that? Draw it here;

A lullaby is a soothing song, usually sung to young children before they go to sleep.
Write a lullaby to go with this painting;

Look carefully at this painting. Find 5 things you think other people won't notice.

List them;

1. _____

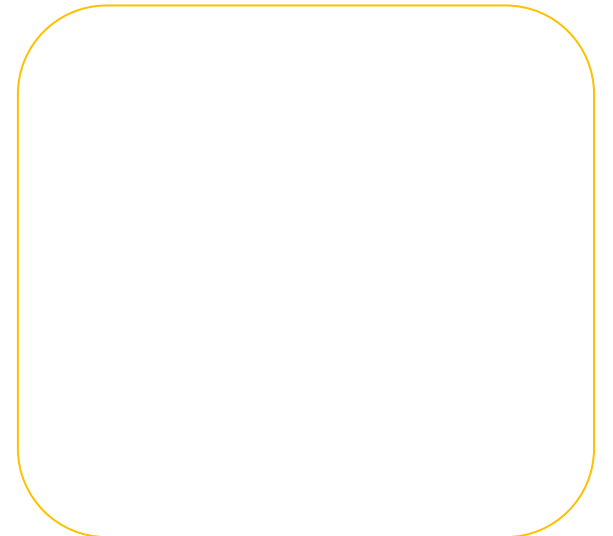

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

Think about where this painting is hanging in the gallery. Sketch the shape of the room and indicate where the painting is on the wall. Mark it with an X.

HEIDE EDUCATION

Still looking at Lullaby in the Twilight Zone...

Imagine you have gone to the place in this painting. Think about what it is like there. Is it fun?
Write a postcard to a friend telling them what it is like there. Don't forget to address it.

Heide Museum of Modern Art

Heide

How many years before you were born was this painting painted?

POSTCARD

CORRESPONDENCE

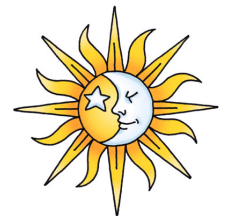

ADDRESS

AFFIX STAMP HERE

What time is twilight?
Mark out the time on
this digital clock;

AM or PM?

This is a promotional image for a popular television series made in America from 1959 to 1964 called The Twilight Zone. What do you think it was about? Why?
