EDUCATION VOLUNTEER

Position Description

- Reports to: Education Manager / Visitor Services & Volunteer Program Manager
- Department: Education & Visitor Services
- Salary: Volunteer Role
- Term: Ongoing

About Heide

Heide Museum of Modern Art (Heide) offers an inspiring, educational and thought-provoking experience of modern and contemporary art, architecture, social history and gardens. Heide presents 10-14 exhibitions per year, across five galleries, with associated publications, public and education programs.

The Heide Collection comprises nearly 2,500 works in all media, and includes a significant representation of Australian modern art by key artists from the 1930s to the 1950s. It offers a perspective on modern and contemporary art practice, as well as Heide history.

About the Education Department

Heide education programs offer a variety of ways to interact with and learn from Heide exhibitions, history, collection, gardens and grounds.

The Education Volunteer program aims to develop a team of skilled and dedicated individuals who can guide students and teachers through Heide exhibitions and talk about artwork; providing a bridge between the museum and school audiences. Education Volunteers are qualified and enthusiastic teachers or other professionals with related skills who support the delivery of our dynamic and interactive education programs and events.

The Visitor Services Volunteer Program aims to develop a dedicated team of individuals who have a broad, general understanding of the operations of the museum and are able to assist and provide information to museum visitors and undertake other front-of-house duties when required.

Education Volunteers support Visitor Services operations through regularly participating in training and volunteering in Visitor Services.
